Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

The Jed Foundation works nationally to reduce the rate of suicide and the prevalence of emotional distress among college and university students. To achieve this end, the organization collaborates with the public and leaders in higher education, mental health, and research to produce and advance initiatives that: 1) Decrease the stigma surrounding emotional disorders and increase help-seeking in the college student population; 2) Increase understanding of the warning signs of suicide and the symptoms of emotional disorders among college students; 3) Build awareness of the prevalence of suicide and emotional disorders among college students; and 4) Strengthen campus mental health services, policies, and programs.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4d - Other Program Services Description

A joint initiative with the Education Development Center, Inc. and the Suicide Prevention Resource Center, CampusMHAP provides college administrators and clinical staff with the knowledge and skills needed to carry out a strategic planning process to address student mental health. The program uses Webinars and associated tools to assist campus teams in 1) assessing local needs and assets; 2) setting goals; 3) selecting and implementing programs and activities; and 4) conducting evaluations.

With the goal of clarifying the issues of law and liability that impact decision-making around student mental health, the Foundation sponsored a one-day roundtable in April 2007 that brought together leading experts in higher education law, administration, and mental health. The resulting document continues to provide schools with a free resource reflecting the most current thinking in the field.

Other programs seek to further the Foundation's mission.
